

We don't simply sell catfish; we procure the finest premium farm-raised, grain-fed catfish in the market today. Using all the latest technology and experience that we have gained to develop a great tasting premium catfish, we monitor and control the quality of every fish we process. All this effort and care are evident in the color, texture, aroma and flavor of our catfish, no matter what style or cut.

The Finest Quality... Whole Grown Catfish...

No expense or effort is spared to provide the finest quality fresh catfish available today. We start with premium grade, farm-raised stock fish that have been matured with a select grain-fed diet. When the catfish meets Southern Pride's quality guidelines, we harvest and deliver them live to our processing facility. The only fresher catfish than our fresh or frozen whole catfish, are still in the pond. Call your Southern Pride Catfish Representative today and give your customer the finest, freshest premium catfish we can provide.
