Why Serve Tyson MRB Chicken?

Value and Convenience

- Its convenient freezer-to-fryer form allows reallocation of labor because it reduces cleanup time and eliminates the breading process
- MRB chicken offers more control over portion costs because pieces are consistently sized
- It offers substantial savings on breading ingredients
- A wide variety of breading profiles and piece mixes makes it easy to suit any taste preference
- MRB chicken helps reduce shrink because you can prepare only what you need
- Consistent results every time make it perfect for high-volume catering jobs

Prebreading and Premarination

- Prebreading provides uniform coverage and a consistent product appearance
- Prebreading also reduces breading loss and increases the usable life of fryer oil
- Premarination allows the product to stay tender and juicy for hours in a hot case

Quick-Frozen

- Each piece is frozen in minutes, halting bacteria growth and helping to eliminate food-safety risks such as cross-contamination
- The quick-freezing process also locks in flavor, moisture, and tenderness
- Since the pieces are individually frozen, they eliminate waste and are easy to handle back-of-the-house
